

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS!

02 SEPTEMBER, 2010 – HMCS FREDERICTON ARRIVES IN TORONTO. The ship will be open to the public on 03 September (1300 to 1600) and 06 September (1300 to 1800).

The ship will be alongside Pier 272 at the foot of Yonge St. The Ship's Company have been invited to visit the Naval Club while on Shore Leave, so please make them welcome if you see them at the Club.

03 SEPTEMBER, 2010 – RCNVR PLAQUE UNVEILING.

At 1030, a replacement plaque is being unveiled/dedicated at the Bank of Nova Scotia Plaza, 40 King St. West, commemorating the location (then at 34 King St. West) of the First ½ Company of the RCNVR that started parading there in April, 1923. The Navy will be on hand carrying current colours and the Naval Club's White Ensign will also be carried. Let's have a good turnout of Naval Club Members at this historic event. Come on down to the Naval Club afterwards for a cold one (or two)

03 SEPTEMBER, 2010 – FREEDOM OF THE CITY PARADE.

At 1900, The Navy will be parading from the foot of Yonge St. to Nathan Phillips Square for the Ceremony. Officers and Sailors from HMCS Fredericton, HMCS York, HMCS Star, CFB Borden, ASU (Toronto) and the Staff College will be in the Parade. The Ceremony will conclude with a modified Sunset Ceremony after which, the Parade will then march back to Queens' Quay for dismissal. Again let's have a good show of support followed by a visit to the Naval Club afterwards.
